According to the text that an increasing number of people today frequently change their careers and places of residence several times during their lives. So I think that it's <sup>30</sup> a positive development. On the one hand, it's positive because of your own personalities, for example, I changed my places of residence, that ~~is~~ means that I change all my friends, <sup>60</sup> work, house, etc. It's very interesting and important to change your close circle of people sometimes. You can meet new people and new opportunities.

By the way there is the opposite side. And it's not prettier than the first. If <sup>40</sup> you change your place of residence or career, probably, you can lose all ~~thing~~ <sup>that</sup> you have. Or there is a chance of <sup>115</sup> unlucky situation.

Finally, I would like to say that, there is situations, when it's really important to change your career ~~or~~ place of residence. And that's <sup>150</sup> not bad. If you decided that it's necessary to change something, do it! Because why not? If you not try, you would never open the world of fantastic and exciting opportunities <sup>180</sup>. If you change something, you are strong man. And ~~ye~~ If you have bad "road" in your life, don't be sad. <sup>200</sup> It must become clear! <sup>203</sup>
